

SÃO MIGUEL
Batalha Golf Club

Where the green of the land meets the blue of the ocean and a historic landscape awaits you. This course, designed by Cameron Powell in 1986, offers 27 holes of golf laid out over 300 acres, in a magnificent setting, nestling on the skirts of the surrounding hills and with sweeping views to the ocean – has large flowing greens, wide and generous fairways and sinuously contoured bunkers.

FURNAS GOLF CLUB

This spectacular golf course set in the middle of a powerful volcanic landscape with luxuriant tropical vegetation. Provides a truly incredible golfing experience. The first nine holes of the course were laid out by MacKenzie Ross in 1936, and represent the arrival of golf to the azores. The holes meander through a landscape of spectacular natural beauty that leaves you speechless. Estended in 1992, the course now boasts 18 magnificent golf holes and warm British style clubhouse.
