

Ilha Azul, the Blue Island, has a lively, international atmosphere due to its status as a favorite stopover for yachts crossing the Atlantic. The 'blue' comes from the endless hedges of hydrangeas that fill with color in season. From the capital, Horta, with exceptional views of Pico Mountain, to the volcano museum, near the site of the off-shore eruption in 1957/58 that added new land to Faial, the island will enrapture even the most jaded traveler.
