

Pousadas

The Pousadas are uniquely Portuguese and represent the very best that Portugal has to offer: elegant luxurious accommodations designed with great attention to detail, exceptional service and warm friendly staff. Each 'Inn' epitomizes the culture and history of the region. Choose among Pousadas built in historic castles, former monasteries, palaces and convents and located in historic towns or rural areas of natural beauty or interest.

Pousadas are divided into four categories:

Originally historic monuments

"Historic" Pousadas are usually located within historic castles, monasteries or palaces and often preserve the original design of rooms and dining areas, while offering all the modern conveniences travelers expect.

Contemporarily restored historic monuments

"Historic Design" Pousadas are also located in historically important buildings, but usually have a modern interior style

Regional architecture epitomizing local culture

"Charm" Pousadas are often built in the local architectural style of the region, often in centuries old houses and farms.

Outstanding countryside locations

"Nature" Pousadas take advantage of Portugal's rustic destinations, sitting on the edge of forests, near lakes, rivers or mountains.
